Death of Chas. F. Schultz.

Charles F. Schultz, one of the best known German residents of the county, died at noon Sunday at his home south of Owosso, after a long illness. Mr. Schultz was 45 years old. The remains were taken to Jennings & Son's undertaking parlors Tuesday. The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the St. Johannes Evangelical church. Rev. Paul O. Davids officiated. Interment in Oak Hill cemetery.

Mr. Schultz was born in Germany and came to this country when but 12 years old. He lived on a farm for a number of years and later moved to Owosso to engage in the saloon business. About four years ago he closed his place and moved to a farm south of the city, which he had purchased. For three years he suffered the ravages of cancer. About a year ago he submitted to treatment with an extremely powerful medicine, and seemed to have almost entirely recovered for a few weeks. He soon began to fail again, however, and his decline has been gradual since that time.

Deceased was a member of Owosso Aerie of Eagles, the Arbelter society, the Herman Sons society and was a charter member of St. Johannes Evangelical church.

Surviving are his widow and two sons, Ernest and Oscar Schultz, one half-brother, Herman Brendahl, living north of Owosso, and a half-sister, Mrs. Elsie Bixby of Owosso.

Burton Farmers' Club.

The November meeting of the Burton Farmers' club was held at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Potter. The opening song by the members was "America." The devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Putnam. Minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Hammond.

The election of a delegate to attend the state farmers' club at Lansing in December, resulted in the selection of Mrs. George Fauth.

After dinner and a social hour, the program was again taken up. The first question: "What is the Mortgage Lifter on the Farm?" was taken by Mrs. Garber, who read a paper relating to this topic. Several others gave good thoughts on the subject also.

"Does it Cost any Extra to Have Fresh Air in the House?" This question was given to Mrs. J. Post, who said if we value our health, it does not. It is important to have fresh air in all parts of the house.

"Is the Right and Left Plow a Good Investment?" Mr. Peterson being absent, others spoke. They thought it was not in a level field.

"You Being a Holstein Fancier, Give Your Reasons for Buying a Jersey cow." The question was given by Mr. Fauth, but was put over until the next meeting as he was not present.

"Would a More Practical Education for our Young People Lessen the Divorce Evil?" Mrs. Putnam read a paper on this topic.

"Are Shredded Corn Stalks as Good as Corn Stalks cut as you Feed Them?" Mr. Post thinks he would prefer them cut to shredded.

"Could Farmers Organize so as to Control Prices of Farm Products?" There were several good thoughts on what might be done, if farmers would work to gether.

"Balanced Ration for the Human Body." Mrs. Love read a paper relating to this subject.

Current events were read by Mrs. A. Sholtz.

The next meeting will be held with Mr. and Mrs. Giles, the first Thursday in December.

Bid Them "God Speed"

The Woman's club met Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. T. Walsh. At the close of the interesting program a large representation of the members went to the Ann Arbor station to bid "God Speed" to Mr. and Mrs. Frank McDannel, who left that evening for Florida. Mrs. McDannel is vice president of the Women's club. So with words of cheer and enthusiasm from the members and a box of violets from the president, they departed for the land of sunshine and flowers.

SOLVING FARM PROBLEMS.

New Departure for International Stock Show.

Much interest and value has been added to the International Live Stock Exposition by the announcement that with a view of aiding in the solution of a number of important questions in stock farming, and to contribute toward reduction of the high cost of living, there will be inaugurated during its next great annual show, to be held at the Union Stock yards of Chicago, November 30 to December 7, 1912, a series of important lectures and demonstrations.

Leading educators and successful stockmen have been invited to deliver these lectures during the week of the show upon topics of vital interest to the breeders, feeders and farmers of America. For this purpose a large convention hall, with equipment to illustrate the lectures by stereopticon views or live animal exhibits is under construction in the main amphitheater.

As a forerunner of what will be afforded the visitors, the following educators will make addresses during exposition week: Dr. A. D. Melyin, U. S. Department of Agriculture; H. J. Waters, president Kansas Agricultural College; Professor Herbert M. Mumford, University of Illinois; Professor H. R. Smith, University of Minnesota; Professor C. S. Plumb, Ohio State University; Dr. J. A. Kiersan, U. S. Department of Agriculture; Dr. A. S. Alexander, University of Wisconsin; Professor F. A. Trowbridge, University of Missouri; Professor W. A. Cochel, Kansas State College.

It is also intended to incorporate a course of domestic science at the show, and the best known authorities in the country will be present to explain the importance of this department. Special instruction will be given the housewife on the best way of preparing the cheaper cuts of meats into nutritious and palatable dishes for the table.

These new features will add immensely to the educational value of the show, not only to the farmer and stockman, but also to the farm wife, to the meat industry and the city visitor.

They call the whole thing a university course at the price of a railroad ticket. That is, for the farmer and his family, who will get from this great show new ideas and aspirations which will make them proud of their calling and bind them closer to the farm.

A FAIR WARNING

One That Should Be Heeded by Owosso Residents.

Frequently the first sign of kidney trouble is a slight ache or pain in the loins. Neglect of this warning makes the way easy for more serious troubles—dropsy, gravel, Bright's disease. "It well to pay attention to the first sign. Weak kidneys generally grow weaker and delay is often dangerous. Residents of this locality place reliance in Doan's Kidney Pills. This tested remedy has been used in kidney trouble 50 years—is recommended all over the civilized world. Read the following:

Mrs. George Sutter, 637 E. Main St., Owosso, Mich., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in my family with great success and I do not hesitate to recommend them. I took this remedy for attacks of backache and other disorders of my kidneys and they cured me. Other members of the household have used Doan's Kidney Pills for similar trouble and the results have been satisfactory. You may use my testimony whenever you wish."

World's Oldest Museum.

The oldest museum in the world may be found in the city of Nara, the former capital of Japan. Since its foundation, in 756, it has gone through all the changes of the Japanese empire without one single addition to its collection. Dr. Otto Kummel is one of the few Europeans who were permitted to visit this museum. It opens its doors but once a year, on a day in spring, when a special committee inspect the collection, and a new list is made out. The museum contains about 3,000 articles, which are said to be the most beautiful specimens of decorative work which have ever been produced by human hand, such as lacquer ware, decorative furniture, enamel ware, cambric-like fabric, etc. The origin of the majority of the articles is uncertain; some came from China and others from Korea, but most of them appear to be of a more exotic origin. All, however, came of a year prior to the year 756.

LIVING TOWER IS UNIQUE

Captain Meeker Built It on the Tops of Four Redwood Trees in California.

What is known as the "Living Tower" (says a writer in the Wide World Magazine) stands on the very summit of a hill more than two hundred feet high at Camp Meeker, a summer resort in Sonoma county, California. It was Captain Meeker, an old pioneer, who first conceived the idea of building a tower on the very summit of a high hill near his hotel, and while looking around one day for a suitable site, he found four young redwood trees standing about twelve feet apart, representing a perfect square. The trees were each about one hundred and fifty feet high. Fifty feet of each top was lopped off, and the work of building six stories was then commenced. From top to bottom the Living Tower was one hundred feet high. Each floor is about twelve by twelve feet, and rests on strong timbers, the ends of which are securely attached to the four trees by means of steel cables and bolts. So strongly was every part braced that the whole structure does not move as much as one would naturally suppose, even when rocked by heavy winds.

In the building great care was taken by the workmen to cut only the branches growing on the inside of the square, and the trees were not chopped, mutilated, or weakened any more than could possibly be avoided. Leading up from each story are broad stairways, so that one may ascend and descend with ease and perfect safety, while around the edge of each floor are strong railings to prevent accidents. Since this tower was completed, the trees have grown and flourished just as well as before. This living tower is claimed to be the only one of its kind in the world.

LAST OF A RACE OF KINGS

Michael, Prince of Cyprus, Jerusalem and Syria, Died Recently in Charity Hospital.

In the charity ward of a hospital in St. Petersburg there died of cancer a few days ago the last of a dynasty of famous kings. This pauper was Michael, prince of Cyprus, Jerusalem and Syria, aged fifty-four. With him perished the family of Lusignan, which had been reigning monarchs for many centuries.

Prince Michael was the only son of Louis de Lusignan, who was driven from the throne of Cyprus by the Turks in 1321. He had inherited his vast treasures to the Patriarch of Constantinople, but the Turks confiscated these and appropriated them to their own use. In the war for the liberation of Greece the prince tried to regain his throne, but in 1327 he had to flee to Russia, where Czar Nicholas gave him a commission as captain in the army.

Prince Louis fought in the Crimean war, but the result of this was disastrous to his hopes. When Greece regained its independence the throne of the newly created nation was twice offered to Prince Louis, who refused it.

Napoleon III. took up Prince Louis' cause and Count Debussy made a formal contract to supply him with the necessary means. He expected to wring from the Turkish government about $250,000,000. But the Franco-Prussian war resulted in Napoleon III. being driven from the throne of France and once more the hopes of Prince Louis to regain the throne of Cyprus, Jerusalem and Syria were dashed to the ground.

In 1884 Prince Louis died, leaving his only son nothing but aspirations and a royal name. Prince Michael was then 24 years old. He lived almost as a recluse, but never gave up his hopes. Those who knew him considered him a crank because of the strange costume he always wore. This consisted of a Russian army overcoat with gold buttons on which were the three crowns of his kingdom.

STUDY IN DETROIT

THE CITY OF COLLEGES

WHERE LIFE IS WORTH LIVING.

There was never a time in the world's history when the demand for educated men and women was so great as now; when there are plentiful opportunities for those whose training has fitted them to shoulder responsibility. This is a natural outgrowth of the modern trend in all lines, where specialization is the order of the day. Select any line you like and you will find in Detroit abundant facilities for your training. And with these select schools fitting you to take your place in social circles. Dancing, deportment, music, elocution, languages all have their exponents and large following. Classes are available at all hours both day and evening, thus courses of different schools can be combined. Further information can be secured by writing direct to addresses given.

Music study in Detroit is not only increasing yearly, but the quality is also rising. Musicians who have procured their education in Detroit are taking rank with any in the world. Every year bringing press stories of some of them becoming famous. Art schools are also ranking high in their work and amongst the leading conservatories and art academies are:

occupies a beautiful building most centrally located at 65 Forest ave. east. Its pupils include representatives of this country and Canada. Louise Unsworth Cragg, director and head of piano department, has studied both here and abroad. She is a teacher of the most advanced methods and is a widely known concert pianist.

Charles J. Cragg has been a leading soloist and director for many years. As an instructor in singing he enjoys a splendid reputation. The course of public school music and drawing is under Miss May E. Starr. Her pupils are always in demand and readily secure positions. The college grants diplomas and teachers' certificates.

MCDONALD SCHOOL OF MUSIC

is now permanently located at 573 Cass avenue, occupying their own large handsome building. The school was founded in 1909 by Miss Kate McDonald pianist, Charlotte McDonald violinist, Emma McDonald, cellist, and the success of the school is due largely to the grading and examination originated by Miss McDonald.

Mr. Francis A. Mahew head of the piano department has sustained here the enviable reputation as a concert pianist, which he enjoyed in Europe. He is a forceful, enthusiastic teacher with a keen musical knowledge. The school work embraces every branch, with an exceptionally strong normal training course.

Branches: 1341 Grand River avenue, 1951 Woodward avenue, 241 St. Clair avenue, 316 Vinewood avenue.

THE DETROIT SCHOOL OF DESIGN was founded and organized through the efforts of the Detroit Society of Arts and Crafts by a number of Detroit's foremost citizens in the business and professional world. Its purpose being to develop students with that capacity for directly making use of their training in organized industry where an art education is becoming more respected and more in demand.

Courses of instruction are given in design, drawing and modeling, after which when some facility of expression is acquired the student may specialize in interior decoration, illustration architecture, wood carving and normal art. With these lectures will be given on anatomy, illustration processes, chemistry of pigments, theory of design and color, and history of art. The Museum of Art is located within one block and is open to students for study.

A limited number of scholarships are available and these will be assigned to pupils who by diligence and merit prove themselves worthy. The school is under direction of Geo. T. Hamilton, late of Philadelphia, where he is widely known as an instructor of high standing.

SCHOOL OF FINE ARTS begins its third year under the management of John P. Wicker and offers its students the advantages of the best schools, large well lighted class rooms; good models, many of them professional from New York and other art centers; complete academy course along most advanced lines, and class schedule covering training of children under Frederick E. Thompson, illustration under Joseph L. Kraemer, and drawing and painting with composition under Mr. Wicker. Located Fine Arts Building.

PARIS SCHOOL OF FRENCH is the only successful school of its kind ever established in Detroit. It was founded over six years ago, and is now enjoying a very prosperous business, having nearly 100 pupils enrolled last year. Mr. B. E. Dignity Gingsras with Madame B. E. Dignity Gingsras are superintendents of this school in Fine Arts Bldg.

Some of the finest instructors of music maintain their own studios, and claim that while diplomas are not issued, pupils may obtain more thorough and higher training, which is being constantly proven by results. Pupils so desiring may select their own teacher with hours to suit, thus securing the highest talent. The following brief notes are for your help.

announces eight partial scholarships to talented pupils again this year. Some of the greatest names have been given to music through scholarships of this nature. The earnest pupil who has received these advantages is most likely to prove in turn most helpful in the developing of art.

For nearly fifteen years Mr. Wiseman has been recognized as one of Detroit's most prominent vocal teachers, and many of his pupils are well known as professional singers and teachers. He is director of Detroit Oratorio Society which has appeared with enormous success in many concerts. Studio 106 Broadway.

CLYDE A. NICHOLS

has taught in Detroit for past ten years. During this short period he has produced many excellent singers and a few remarkable soloists, whose training and voice enabled them to step to the front rank of concert and operatic work. The most recent is Mrs. Ray Ruddy, understudy to Marguerita Sylva, in Lehar's new opera, "Gypsy Love." Mr. Nichols is pupil of Geo. Hamlin, tenor Chicago Grand Opera. Studio 270 Woodward.

JENNIE M. STODDARD

has long been recognized as one of Detroit's foremost teachers of singing. Miss Stoddard directs the Tuesday Musicales Chorus. The Chaminade Quartet of which she is also a member, and the Northwestern Choral Club. Studio, Valpey Building, 213 Woodward avenue.

ELVIN SINGER

has an international standing as a successful vocal teacher. A native of Vienna he studied under Lamperti of Milan and Sbriglia of Paris.

His singing is beautiful and artistically correct—thus the pupil may learn by imitation, a most potent factor of success. Mr. Singer was first to present "Puccini's Madam Butterfly" and Liza Lehmann's "Nonsense Songs" in America.

MR. AND MRS. MARSHALL PEASE.

Mr. Pease has been in Detroit for twenty years, the last two having been with the Detroit Conservatory. Many of his pupils are holding prominent positions as church, concert and operatic singers. Out of town pupils can secure his instruction without enrolling through the Conservatory. He is assisted by Mrs. Pease.

KATHERINE MAREE REYNOLDS

has a high soprano voice of mezzo quality and very sympathetic timbre. She puts into her work hard study—earnest desire for attaining the best and giving the highest service, which brings rare result. Teaches singing, voice culture, accompanying, sight singing harmony, history of music, choir conducting. Studio 13 Calvert.

ALLICE MAY HARRAH

is especially successful in the training of vocal students in French, German, Italian, Spanish, Scotch as well as English for concert, opera and oratorio. Her pronunciation being perfect. She is a pupil of Wm. Couttrey, New York, Paul Pecquery and G. Sbriglia, Paris and N. Frasnert, Dresden. Studio, 213 Woodward.

A. A. LANGLOIS

with studio at 270 Woodward is a singer of ability and a teacher of much experience. Many singers owe their professional career to his efficient and conscientious teaching. Students under his tuition will be guided aright. Mr. Langlois is in his Detroit studio Monday and Thursdays.

CLARA KOEHLER HERBERLEIN daughter of the late famous critic, composer, and pedagogue, Louis Koehler, and exponent of his methods of teaching, is well known as a teacher, lecturer, and pianist, her work having long since established for her a high reputation both here and abroad.

She is director of the Chamber Music Society of Detroit, prominent in the Detroit Tuesday Musicales as conductor of the Orchestra, and leader of piano ensemble classes. Studios 89 Hancock, E. and Grosse Pointe.

MISS FRANCIS M. CROSSETTE who has pianoforte studios in the Gladwin Bldg. 276 Woodward, has but recently returned from Paris where she studied four years with the celebrated teacher Wager Swayne. Several years previous to her study abroad she taught in the Detroit Conservatory under directorship of the late J. H. Hahn.

MRS. ROBINA TURNBULL

has an enviable reputation as teacher of piano, many prominent teachers and concert players having had their training with her. As a teacher of harmony she is very proficient making that study part of every student's work. Mrs. Turnbull is regarded a leading instructor and her state following is large. Studio 270 Woodward.

EDWARD O'CONNOR

the well known composer and teacher will open a new studio in Van Housen Bldg. 106 Broadway, where he will teach piano and harmony. Mr. O'Connor is one of the best known younger teachers, and his clientele is growing yearly. He has recently completed writing a mass which will be produced early this fall.

ELIZABETH THORPE

has studios both in Pontiac and the Gladwin Bldg. Detroit. Miss Thorpe is an accomplished pianist and accompanist, and her piano and organ students show most conscientious training. She is a pupil of Alberto Jonas, Berlin, of Frau Breeand Leschetitzky in Vienna and Wager Swayne in Paris. She endorses Leschetitzky method.

MISS ADAM HEMENWAY has been a successful teacher of the piano for several years. Miss Hemenway is a student of the late J. H. Hahn and F. L. York. Residence 77 Mt. Vernon ave. Studio 43 Valpey Bldg. and 213 Woodward.

MISS LOUISE DAVISON whose violin studio is located in the Grainger-Hannan Building at 240 Woodward ave. is an excellent violinist and recognized as one of Detroit's most successful teachers of this instrument. Miss Davison is well remembered as a member of the Beethoven Trio, a widely known and appreciated organization.

In dramatic art and elocution you will find given below notes on some of the oldest and finest schools in the country.

THE R. F. HILL SCHOOL OF DRAMATIC ARTS.

After several years on the professional stage with Vaughn Glaser Stock Co., and several road plays Mr. Hill has opened a school for preparing of pupils for the professional stage. Mr. Hill gives his pupils real professional training such as is received only by starting at the bottom and working up.

E. B. R. SCHOOL OF ACTING occupies the most prominent spot in Detroit, being in the Detroit Opera house block. Large, well-equipped stage and auditorium are among attractions, giving pupils every opportunity for actual professional experience.

The school was founded 17 years ago by Emma Burtraw Ravlier, and was a success from the beginning. They teach stage rehearsals, elocution, vaudeville, make-up, dancing, fencing and language.
